WILLIAM D. WALL, United States Magistrate Judge:

This case has been dismissed by stipulation of the parties as to all of the defendants who appeared in the action, see Docket Entry [86], but remains open due to the existence of several named defendants who have never appeared. Plaintiffs have not sought default judgments as to any of these parties. On August 16, 2010, the undersigned issued an Order for Written Status Report to the plaintiffs in this action. See Docket Entry [87]. The Order directed plaintiffs to inform the court in writing, within ten days of the date of the order, of the present status of this case. The plaintiff was expressly warned that “[f]ailure to respond could result in a recommendation of dismissal of this case.” Despite this warning, plaintiff has failed to respond to the Order.

Rule 41(b) gives the district court power to dismiss a complaint “for failure to comply with a court order, treating noncompliance as a failure to prosecute.” Simmons v. Abruzzo, 49 F.3d 83, 87 (2d Cir. 1995). It is well settled that a dismissal under Rule 41(b) “operates as an adjudication on the merits and that such a dismissal is with prejudice.” Hoffman v. Wisner Classic Mfg. Co., 927 F. Supp. 67, 71 (E.D.N.Y. 1996) (citing Link v. Wabash R. Co., 370 U.S. 626, 630-32 (1962)). Here, the plaintiff has failed to comply with the undersigned’s order of August 16, 2010. Accordingly, it is recommended that the case be dismissed with prejudice.

A copy of the Report and Recommendation is being sent to the parties by electronic filing. Any objections to this Report and Recommendation must be filed with the Clerk of the Court within 14 days. See 28 U.S.C. §636 (b)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72; Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(a) and 6(d). Failure to file objections within this period waives the right to appeal the District Court’s Order. See Ferrer v. Woliver, 2008 WL 4951035, at *2 (2d Cir. Nov. 20, 2008); Beverly v.
